I/We apply to open a credit account. For the purposes of the Privacy Act 1993 and the Credit Reporting Privacy Code 2004, or any substitute legislation, I/we authorise:

- The collection of credit information about me/us by a credit reporter (being an agency that carries on a business of reporting to other agencies, for payment, information relevant to the assessment of the creditworthiness of individuals); and
- The disclosure to you of credit information about me/us by a credit reporter for the purpose of a credit decision about me/us (and for directly related purposes including debt collection).

In making the above authorisations I/we understand that:

1. You may receive information about me/us from a credit reporter, and you may give my/our personal information to a credit reporter, and that credit reporter will hold that information on its systems and use it to provide its credit reporting service.
2. Where information is held by a credit reporter, other customers of that credit reporter may be given access to personal information about me/us (subject to relevant statutory protections).
3. If I/we default in my/our payment obligations to you, information about that default may be given to a credit reporter, and that credit reporter may give information about the default to its other customers.
4. I/we have rights of access to, and correction of, personal information held about me/us.
5. You will advise me/us on request the name and address of any credit reporter that has been provided with information, or has provided information, about me/us.
